Redshirt Sophomore // Defensive Back
6-0 // 175 // Chandler, Ariz. (Chandler)

Overview

- Was a standout during his first season on the field, being named a freshman first-team all-American by the FWAA and second-team by USA Today
- Incredible ball skills and instincts make him a natural fit on the defensive side of the ball.

Redshirt Freshman (2017)

- Lucas earned Pac-12 Second Team honors at defensive back after an incredible freshman campaign in 2017, despite never playing a single snap at Division I cornerback prior to this season, and not playing as a day-to-day player at the position in high school.
- He was the only freshman to be named to either the Pac-12 First or Second teams last season and became the first freshman to earn First or Second team honors on offense or defense since Oregon running back Royce Freeman earned Second Team offense honors in 2014 .
- He was the first Pac-12 freshman defensive back to make the First or Second teams since Brandon Browner did so for Oregon State back in 2003.

- During the regular season, Lucas allowed just 40 catches despite being targeted 78 times for a menial 51.2 completion percentage while allowing an NFL QBR of 72.4 with two interceptions and six passes defended.
- Despite being targeted more than any of the 23 Pac-12 corners that played at least 60 percent of snaps in the regular season (once every 4.6 passing plays), Lucas allowed the fifth-lowest completion percentage of any corner in the conference – regardless of year.
- Recorded 59 tackles, 46 unassisted and 13 assisted. His 59 tackles were the fifth most on the team.
- Led the Sun Devil secondary with two interceptions and eight pass breakups in 2017.
- Recorded a season high 12 tackles (11 solo), against Colorado (11/4)
- Picked off a pass against Utah (10/21) and Oregon State (11/18)

COACHES & STAFF

ASU SUN DEVIL FOOTBALL

HEAD COACH

HERM EDWARDS

HEAD COACH

Former NFL head coach and ESPN Analyst Herm Edwards was named the 24th head coach of Sun Devil Football, as announced by Arizona State University and Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson on December 3, 2017.

Edwards arrives in Tempe with a football legacy that has impacted thousands, whether as a player, coach, analyst, motivational speaker and author, or community advocate and philanthropist.

At ASU, Edwards will take a proactive approach to developing coordinators and assistant coaches, drawing on his nearly three decades of NFL experience in a variety of capacities and wide range of leadership positions within both the sport of football and in other endeavors. That experience will also be utilized in an effort to develop players to prepare for the next stage of their careers after college.

Edwards was tabbed by Anderson as someone who will be a “central leader with a collaborative staff around him that will elevate the performance of players and coaches on the field, in the classroom and in our community. Equally important, (Edwards) will be a dynamic and tireless recruiter.”

Edwards spent eight years as an NFL head coach with the New York Jets (2001-05) and Kansas City Chiefs (2006-08). He led his teams to four playoff appearances, including 2004 when his Jets squad finished with a 10-6 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. Edwards, who also guided the Chiefs to a Wild Card berth in 2006, is one of only four NFL coaches to lead two different teams to the playoffs in his first season as head coach with those teams.

Among the numerous players that Edwards coached in his career include Pro Football Hall of Famers Curtis Martin, Warren Sapp and Derrick Brooks and numerous All-Pro players such as Larry Johnson, Ronde Barber, John Lynch, Jared Allen, Kevin Mawae, Santana Moss, Tony Gonzalez, Tamba Hali, Derrick Johnson in addition to players like Donnie Abraham, Chad Pennington and Brandon Carr.

Edwards most recently served as a coach for the past six years at the Under Armour All-American game, which features the top high school football recruits in the country, and as an NFL analyst for ESPN since 2009 where he appeared primarily on NFL Live, SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, and the network's coverage of Super Bowl week. He spent 10 seasons in the NFL as a cornerback between the Philadelphia Eagles, Atlanta Falcons and Los Angeles Rams, followed by another 18 years as a scout, position coach, assistant and head coach between the Kansas City Chiefs, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and New York Jets. He made the playoffs four times as an NFL head coach.

Edwards played cornerback for the University of California in 1972 and 1974 before he ended his collegiate career at San Diego State in 1975. An undrafted free agent who went on to have a 10-year NFL career, he never missed a game in his nine seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1977 to 1985 and started all 16 games in seven of his nine seasons with the team. Over the course of his nine years in Philadelphia, Edwards totaled 38 interceptions -- with seven during his sophomore NFL season -- which is just one short of the franchise record. He earned second-team All-NFC honors in 1980 to help lead the Eagles to Super Bowl XV.

It is said the victory formation, which was implemented by the Eagles, came in part to a play made by Edwards late in the 1978 season. Trailing 17-12 to the New York Giants with seconds remaining, Giants' quarterback Joe Pisarcik fumbled the handoff and Edwards picked it up for the scoop and score and the 19-17 victory. The play became known in Philadelphia as "The Miracle at the Meadowlands".

Edwards had 33 career interceptions, plus five more picks in playoff games.

Edwards retired from the NFL following the 1986 season, and as the first graduate of the league's Minority Coaching Fellowship, he immediately went into coaching as a defensive assistant at San Jose State University from 1987 to 1989.

In 1990, Edwards transitioned back into the NFL as a scout and defensive backs coach with the Chiefs from 1990 to 1995 under legendary head coach Marty Schottenheimer. He then served under Tony Dungy with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2000 before being hired as the head coach for the New York Jets in January 2001.

Over the course of five seasons Edwards led the Jets to three playoff berths, five postseason contests and a pair of 10-win seasons. His 35 victories with the team from 2001-04 is tied with Joe Walton (1983-86) for the most regular season wins by a coach in his first four years with the team.

He started his second tour with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2006 and became the first coach in franchise history to lead the team to the playoffs in his initial season.

Edwards joined ESPN in March

2009 as an NFL studio analyst. He appeared primarily on NFL Live and SportsCenter, while also contributing to ESPN Radio and the company's annual Super Bowl coverage. He also worked local broadcasts of Eagles preseason games in 2009.

Among Edwards' other responsibilities, he called weekly SEC prime time college football games alongside Clay Matvick on ESPNU in 2010, and he worked alongside Rece Davis and Chris Spielman in August 2009 to call the Dike-New Hartford at Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) high school football game on ESPN. The game marked the emotional return to the field for Aplington-Parkersburg, which lost its legendary football coach Ed Thomas in a tragic school shooting two months earlier. Edwards also participated in the 2011 SportsCenter series "Back to School," where he returned to his hometown of Monterey, Calif., to coach his former high school team, the Monterey H.S. Toreadores.

Before officially joining ESPN,

HEAD COACH

Edwards worked a brief stint in Bristol during the 2008 NFL offseason as a guest analyst.

A native of Seaside, Calif., Edwards graduated from Monterey High School, attended the University of California, Berkeley for two years, with a stint at Monterey Peninsula College, before graduating from San Diego State University with a degree in Criminal Justice. Edwards was inducted into the California Community College Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

He was appointed a charter member of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, named a member of the Positive Coaching Alliance's National Advisory Committee in 2003 and sits on the Santa Catalina School Board of Trustees. Edwards also remains active in numerous charitable and philanthropic endeavors, including the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) along with his wife, Lia, who lives with Type I diabetes. He also created the Herman L. Edwards Family Youth Foundation in 1985 with the goal of making a direct impact on the lives of children on the Monterey Peninsula.

Edwards has been recognized by multiple organizations for his work in the community. He received the 2012 Walter Camp Foundation Man of the Year Award for his longtime contributions to the game of football; he was honored with Team ESPN's Commentator of the Year Award in 2013; and in 2015 he received the prestigious Shell Legacy Award from the Shell Oil Company. Edwards was the recipient of the inaugural Voices Leadership Award in 2017. Voices is an organization that provides a wide range of support services for 9/11 families, responders and survivors.

Known for his dynamic motivational speaking, Edwards regularly addresses football players of all ages, as well as corporate groups. He spoke to incoming players at the NFL Players Association's Rookie Premier in 2011, and coached teams at both the Under Armour All-America High School Football game (Head Coach 2011-16) and has also coached the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl college all-star game.

Edwards was 5-1 in the Under Armour All-America game, where he worked with such players as Jameis Winston, Amari Cooper, Deshaun Watson, Leonard Fournette and Dalvin Cook.

Edwards co-authored the book You Play to Win the Game – Leadership Lessons for Success On and Off the Field with ESPN's Shelley Smith, and he was involved in longtime NFL referee Jim Tunney's book, It's the Will, Not the Skill – Principles and Philosophies of Success as Seen Through the Eyes, Mind and Heart of Herm Edwards.

A passionate golfer, Edwards appeared in Golf Channel's original series "The Haney Project" with professional instructor Hank Haney in December 2011. Edwards has also played a number of high-profile celebrity tournaments in the past, including the Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and the American Century Celebrity Golf Championship in Lake Tahoe, the latter of which he takes part in every year.

Edwards and his wife Lia are the proud parents of three children: Marcus, Gabrielle and Vivian.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

JOHN SIMON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | RUNNING BACKS COACH

John Simon, a veteran of the NFL, and former motivational speaker, high school coach and administrator, enters his third season as running backs coach at Arizona State University.

Under Simon, the Sun Devils saw one of the largest turnarounds in the running game in recent memory during the second half of the 2017 season, leading to one of the top rushing attacks in the nation. According to Pro Football Focus, the Sun Devils finished the regular season with the 30th-highest graded rushing game last season after having the 41st worst-graded attack in 2016.

ASU has 27 rushing touchdowns this year as it reached 25 or more rushing touchdowns for the fourth time in the last six seasons. Those four times are notable as the Devils had just three previous seasons with at least 25 rushing touchdowns from 1980-2011 (1985, 1986 and 1996).

Kalen Ballage, who accounted for 3,721 all-purpose yards in 47 career games, was selected by the Miami Dolphins in the fourth round of the 2018 NFL Draft. With 27 career rushing touchdowns Ballage fell just one touchdown shy of cracking ASU's all-time top-five for rushing touchdowns. In 2016 he tied the FBS single-game record in 2016 with eight total touchdowns (seven rushing, one receiving) against Texas Tech.

After rushing for 1,027 yards last season, Demario Richard became just the third Sun Devil in history to have multiple seasons over 1,000 rushing yards. Richard, who signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons, finished his career fourth in Sun Devil history with 3,202 rushing yards and second in the Pac-12 era.

In Simon's first season working with ASU's ball carriers the Sun Devils accounted for 27 touchdowns on the ground, eight more than the 2015 squad. Ballage finished 26th in the nation and second in the Pac-12 with 14 rushing touchdowns. Ballage (44 receptions), and Richard (17 receptions), were also effective catching the ball as both backs tallied double-digit receptions totals.

Prior to arriving in Tempe, Simon spent three seasons at Southern Miss before he was hired as the wide receivers coach at Louisiana-Lafayette on Feb. 5, 2016.

Simon mentored a pair of 1,000-yard rushers at Southern Miss in 2015 and the Golden Eagles were one of just five programs in the Football Bowl Division to have two running backs collect at least 1,000 yards on the ground.

Under Simon's tutelage, running backs Jalen Richard and Ito Smith combined for more than 3,000 total yards, including 2,200 yards on the ground, and 29 total touchdowns in 2015 en route to Conference USA first- and second-team honors, respectively. Smith ranked 18th in the nation with 134 all-purpose yards per game in 2015. Simon also had a knack for involving his running backs in the passing game as evidenced by the more than 800 combined receiving yards out of the backfield in 2015.

Simon was part of an offensive coaching staff that helped the Golden Eagles break five major offensive single-season school records in 2015, and notch a 10-win season that included a Conference USA West Division title and a berth in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl against the University of Washington.

Simon spent three years in the National Football League, including the 2002 season with the Tennessee Titans and 2003-04 seasons with the Washington Redskins.

Following his professional football career, Simon worked as a motivational speaker geared toward at-risk youth through his non-profit organization I.M.A.G.E., which focused on improving minority areas.

Prior to his time at USM, Simon spent five years (2008-12) in a variety of roles at Franklin D. Roosevelt High School in Dallas, including position coach, coordinator, head coach, and athletics director. Simon began his coaching career as receivers coach at the school in 2008 before he moved to the other side of the ball as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2009. He became the special teams coordinator, secondary coach, and assistant athletics director in 2010, and was the interim head coach and athletics director the following season. He made the move into administration full time in 2012 as the school's athletics director.

Simon has participated in the NFLPA Coaching Symposium and NFL-NCAA Coaches Academy, and is active at numerous seminars across the country, including the THSCA Coaches Convention and AFCA Coaches Convention.

Simon gained more than 4,800 all-purpose yards and caught a pass in a then-NCAA record 36 consecutive games as a four-year starter at Louisiana Tech University from 1998 through 2001. He helped lead the Bulldogs to the program's first Western Athletic Conference Championship and bowl appearance in 11 years as a senior in 2001. Simon, who moved to wide receiver as a senior, received the 2001 Humanitarian Award at the Humanitarian Bowl and was a recipient of the Louisiana Tech President's Award.

Simon earned his bachelor's degree in business from Louisiana Tech. He and his wife, Cecelia, have two children, John IV and James.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

ROB LIKENS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | QUARTERBACKS COACH

Rob Likens, a coaching veteran with more than 25 years of experience in the college ranks and a former assistant coach in the Pac-12 Conference, enters his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after serving as the Sun Devils wide receivers coach for one season.

"There was no doubt in my mind that Rob Likens was the man we needed to step up and fill this role as offensive coordinator," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "Coach Likens provides much needed consistency and stability as we continue to build our staff. He has been heavily involved in the offensive game planning and play-calling and the improvement on offense this season with Coach Likens as Co-Offensive Coordinator speaks for itself. I have quickly learned that Rob cares deeply for these young men. I am excited to work with Rob as we continue to build upon this program."

This will be the sixth offensive coordinator position of Likens' career.

Recent NFL players who Likens coached in college include Bryce Treggs (Philadelphia Eagles/California), Kenny Lawler (Seattle Seahawks/California), Chris Harper (San Francisco 49ers/California), Maurice Harris (Washington Redskins/California), Trevor Davis (Green Bay Packers/California), Quinton Patton (San Francisco 49ers/Louisiana Tech) and Myles White (Tampa Bay Buccaneers/Louisiana Tech).

In Likens' first season with the Sun Devils working with the wide receivers and as co-offensive coordinator, ASU had the 10th highest-graded passing attack in the nation according to Pro Football Focus after being graded 86th in 2016. The 76-spot swing in the passing game rankings was the third highest in all of the FBS (second among Power Five schools).

The passing game was elevated by Likens' receiving corps that was the 30th-highest graded group in the country in according to PFF - improving 11 spots from its 41st-place ranking last season.

Named first-team all-Pac-12 last season, wide receiver N'Keal Harry racked up 82 catches for 1,142 yards and eight touchdowns. Harry averaged over 87 yards receiving per game and nearly 14 yards per catch in 2017. His 87 yards per game were the best in the Pac-12, and he finished second in the conference in receptions and yards.

The Sun Devils had five different receivers with 100+ yard-games in 2017, a total it had never before reached in an entire season.

A veteran orchestrator on the offensive side of the ball, Likens joined Kansas football head coach David Beaty's staff in the role of offensive coordinator in January 2015. Likens went to KU in 2015 after completing his second season as the assistant head coach and outside receivers coach at the University of California with Sonny Dykes in 2014, and his first with the additional responsibilities of passing game coordinator.

In 2014, Likens' Cal passing game, led by the 2016 NFL Draft No. 1 pick Jared Goff, ranked sixth in the NCAA in passing yards with 346.0 yards through the air per outing on its way to rewriting the Golden Bear single-season passing yardage record in 2014 with 4,152 yards. Additionally, three of his top four receivers were Biletnikoff Award candidates in Chris Harper, Kenny Lawler and Bryce Treggs.

Cal's passing game during Likens' first season with the Golden Bears in 2013 set single-season school records for passing yardage (3,977), pass completions (368) and pass attempts (622), while also establishing new single-game marks during the campaign for passing yardage (521 vs. Washington State) and pass attempts (65 vs. Northwestern).

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Likens served as an assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Louisiana Tech from 2010-12, including a final campaign in Ruston in which Louisiana Tech posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in scoring offense and total offense by averaging 51.50 points and 577.92 yards of total offense per game.

Likens coached 2012 second-team AP All-American and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist Quinton Patton, who was a major contributor to the team's prolific scoring offense. Patton would go on to play four seasons with the San Francisco 49ers and was most recently a member of the New York Jets.

Likens directed one of the most potent wide receiver corps in the country in 2012 led by Patton, who paced the Western Athletic Conference in both per-game receiving yards (116.00 ypg) and receptions (8.67 rpg), while ranking fourth and fifth in the nation, respectively. He finished with totals of 104 receptions, 1,392 receiving yards and 13 touchdown catches.

In addition to leading the country in scoring offense and total offense with an offense that posted the fifth-highest per-game scoring average ever by a team in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), Louisiana Tech was among the NCAA's top 20 in 2012 in passing offense (3rd, 350.75 ypg), fewest sacks allowed (7th, 0.83 spg), turnover margin (10th, +1.08 per game) and rushing offense (18th, 227.17 ypg). The Bulldogs scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and over 50 points on eight occasions.

Likens coached a group of receivers in 2011 that registered 3,229 receiving yards with 21 touchdown catches during a campaign that included a stretch of seven consecutive wins and a WAC championship. Patton became the first Bulldog receiver to reach 1,000 yards receiving since 2000.

In his first year at Tech in 2010, Likens oversaw a receiving corps that helped the Bulldogs improve from a No. 91 national ranking in passing offense in 2009 to No. 62 in 2010 despite a revolving door at quarterback through the first third of the season.

Prior to his three-year stint at Louisiana Tech, Likens served for four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Central Connecticut State (2006-09) and led the Blue Devils to more wins than in any other four-year period in school history.

CCSU had winning records during each of Likens' four seasons, capped off with a 9-3 mark in 2009 that included a Northeast Conference title and an appearance in the Gridiron Classic, as he coached the ground game to a top-10 national ranking among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) schools each year.

Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense two times, had three undefeated home records and averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1 ppg). Likens coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers, Walter Payton Award finalists, All-America running backs and NEC Offensive Players of the Year in Justise Hairston and James Mallory.

The Blue Devils averaged 239.18 yards per game on the ground in 2008 to rank seventh in the FCS when the team also paced the Northeast Conference in scoring offense, averaging 30.0 points per game. Mallory rushed for 1,520 yards and earned second-team All-NEC honors, becoming the second player in school history to crack the 1,500-yard mark in rushing.

In 2007, CCSU led the NEC in both per-game total offense (387.7 ypg) and rushing offense (257.6 ypg), ranking 10th nationally in the latter.

The Blue Devil offense set numerous school records in 2006, including single-season total yards (4,271) and rushing yards (3,150). CCSU led the nation in rushing yards per game (284.9 ypg) and finished 10th in total offense (386.8 ypg). As a team, CCSU set new single-season marks with 42 rushing touchdowns and 51 touchdowns overall in 11 games.

Hairston set the school's single-season record and was the nation's leading FCS rusher in 2006 with 1,847 yards. He earned AP All-America, AFCA All-America, Sports Network Mid-Major All-America and NEC Offensive Player of the Year honors that season. Hairston was eighth in the final Walter Payton Award balloting, played in the Hula Bowl and Texas vs. the Nation Game, and was a sixth-round pick of the New England Patriots in the 2007 NFL Draft.

In all, CCSU's offense produced eight team records and six individual and single-game marks under Likens. He coached four first-team All-NEC selections, four second-team All-NEC choices and five NEC Offensive Player of the Week honorees, giving him 13 all-conference picks in his four seasons.

Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State (2004-05), where he also worked specifically with the team's quarterbacks and wide receivers. He spent six campaigns at both Temple (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach and North Alabama (1992-97), where he worked with the running backs for the first season of his tenure and the wide receivers for his final five. At North Alabama, he helped the Lions become the first program in NCAA scholarship football to win three consecutive national championships, a feat that no other Division II school has ever accomplished and that has only since been replicated by FCS schools Appalachian State (2005-07) and North Dakota State (2011-13).

Likens played collegiate football as a wide receiver at Mississippi State, earning his bachelor's degree and graduating cum laude in 1990 in math education. He earned his master's degree in math education from North Alabama in 1995.

Likens and his wife, Soni, have one son, Cutter.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

DANNY GONZALES

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Danny Gonzales, who spent the last seven seasons at San Diego State and most recently served as the Aztecs' defensive coordinator, enters his first season as the defensive coordinator for Sun Devil Football.

Gonzales spent all seven seasons with SDSU as the safeties coach but was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to the 2017 season and helped lead the Aztecs to a 10-3 record and an appearance in the Armed Forces Bowl.

In his first season as the defensive coordinator, San Diego State finished 11th nationally and first in the Mountain West in total defense, allowing just 314.5 yards per game. SDSU was also among the top 20 in passing yards allowed (15th/178.7 per game).

San Diego State held 12 of its last 15 opponents to 375 yards or less of total offense. From Nov. 14, 2015 - Dec. 23, 2017 (includes 32 SDSU games), San Diego State ranked sixth in total offense allowed per game (303.3) and ninth nationally in points allowed per game (18.3).

Prior to the Aztecs bowl game in 2017, in 37 games (since Sept. 26, 2015), opponents rushed 1,225 times for 3,843 yards and 3.1 yards per carry. Over that span, SDSU's defense ranked third in yards per carry (3.2) and third nationally in rushing yards allowed per game (103.9).

SDSU was 19th in red zone defense and first in the Mountain West in 2017 allowing opponents to score just 75 percent of the time while the team allowed the sixth-fewest first downs nationally (199). The Aztecs were second in the nation in allowing opponents to convert just 22.2 percent of their fourth down conversion attempts.

Entering the 2017 season, SDSU's 100 interceptions were the third most in the country since 2011, while its 14 interceptions returned for a touchdown were tied for the fifth most over that span. The Aztecs' 49 interceptions in 2015 and 2016 were the most in a two-year span in FBS play since Boston College had 51 in the 2007 and 2008 campaigns. SDSU led the country in interceptions (26) in 2016.

In 2015, the Aztecs finished among the top 10 in the four main defensive categories, including a tie for second with 23 interceptions, fifth in total defense (287.3), seventh in scoring defense (16.4) and rushing defense (108.7) and 10th in passing defense (178.6).

SDSU produced one of the best defensive efforts in school history in 2014, finishing in the top 20 nationally in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense (13th) and total defense (16th).

Gonzales coached Nat Berhe and Eric Pinkins, both of whom were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Berhe was a fifth-round selection of the New York Giants, while Pinkins went in the sixth round to the defending Super Bowl champion Seattle Seahawks.

Under Gonzales' guidance, Berhe became the first Aztec safety in the Mountain West era (since 1999) to garner all-conference accolades three years in a row. Berhe, who landed on the 2013 preseason watch lists for the Jim Thorpe Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy, capped a brilliant collegiate career with first-team all-MWC honors after leading the team with a career-high 99 tackles, including 60 solo stops.

As a team in 2012, the Aztec defense topped the MWC in rushing defense with 133.5 yards per game. SDSU also showed dramatic improvement in that statistic at the national level, climbing from the 78th spot in 2011 to the 28th position in 2012.

Gonzales was part of a staff that saw the Aztec defense finish 2011 with a No. 1 conference ranking in sacks (2.23/g), tackles for loss (6.54/g), interceptions (15) and turnovers gained (28).

He previously was a member of Aztec head coach Rocky Long's staff at New Mexico.

From 2005-08, Gonzales worked with the safeties, punters, kickers and deep snappers at UNM. Under his tutelage, the Lobo safeties combined for 55 pass breakups in 2007-08, and the 2007 New Mexico squad ranked 13th nationally in total defense, 14th in scoring defense and 20th in passing defense.

He coached placekicker John Sullivan to consensus All-America honors. A former walk-on, Sullivan nailed a nation's best 29 field goals in 2007.

Placekickers Kenny Byrd (first-team all-MWC) and James Aho (freshman All-American), and punter Jordan Scott (honorable mention all-MWC) also were honored during Gonzales' coaching stint at UNM.

Gonzales worked with NFL Draft picks defensive back Glover Quin (Houston Texans) and linebacker/defensive back Quincy Black (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) at New Mexico.

Gonzales was the school's video coordinator from 2003-05 and started his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant for the Lobos from 1999-2002.

Gonzales was a three-year letterwinner at New Mexico, competing as a punter and safety. He earned the team's Chuck Cummings Memorial Award for morale and spirit and the Lobo Club Award for unselfish devotion to the team as a senior.

He was a part of the 1997 Lobo squad that won the Western Athletic Conference Mountain Division championship and competed in the Insight.com Bowl. UNM compiled a 9-4 overall record that year, including a 6-2 mark in league action.

Gonzales earned his bachelor's degree from New Mexico in business administration and general management and a master's degree in physical education and recreation.

He and his wife, Sandra, have four children: Cole, Jake, Chloe and Abby.

ASSISTANT COACH

SHAWN SLOCUM

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Former NFL assistant and long-time college assistant coach Shawn Slocum enters his fourth season as the Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator/Outside Linebackers Coach at ASU.

The Sun Devils had the highest-graded special teams unit in the nation in 2016 according to Pro Football Focus and the second-highest graded group in 2015. Despite replacing three NFL players in 2017 (placekicker Zane Gonzalez, punter Matt Haack and kick returned Tim White), ASU still had the 29th-highest graded special teams unit in the nation in 2017.

Freshman kicker Brandon Ruiz was among the top freshmen kickers in the nation in 2017, finishing tied for first in the country among freshmen with 19 field goals made. His 52 total touchbacks were 10th in the nation as well while his 69.33 percent touchback percentage was first among all freshmen in the country and 12th nationally.

The Sun Devils led the Pac-12 and were second nationally in 2017 with six total blocked kicks on the season while the team's five blocked punts were first in the nation.

After posting a number of impressive accomplishments in 2015, Slocum's special teams units performed at an even higher level in 2016. Leading the way was placekicker and 2016 Lou Groza Award winner Gonzalez, who became just the third player in the history of the Sun Devil football program to receive unanimous All-American honors after setting numerous NCAA records during his illustrious career. Gonzalez, who was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the seventh round of the 2017 NFL Draft, was fourth in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in field goals (23) and seventh in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in field goal percentage (920). Gonzalez made an FBS-leading 14 field goals from at least 40 yards and was a remarkable 7-for-9 on attempts from 50 yards or more. That mark, the second-most ever from long distance in an FBS season, includes the longest FG of the year, a 59 yarder that was also the kick to give him the all-time record for career points by a kicker.

Matt Haack turned in a brilliant campaign in 2016 as he finished 18th in the nation and third in the Pac-12 in punting (43.9). As a unit the Sun Devils finished fifth in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in net punting (42.0). Also contributing to ASU's outstanding special teams play in 2016 was Tim White, who finished 10th in the nation in combined kick return yards (963/709 on kickoffs and 254 on punts). In addition, White (punt return) and DJ Calhoun (kickoff) both scored touchdowns on returns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Slocum's outside linebackers were led by Koron Crump, who led the Sun Devils in sacks in 2016 (nine for minus 68 yards) while recording three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Crump, who was named to the Lott IMPACT Trophy Watch List for the 2017 season, also added an interception to go along with his 37 tackles (28 solos stops).

In 2015 Gonzalez continued to be among the best in the country as he finished the season second in the nation in field goals per game (2.0) and 10th in scoring (10.0 ppg). Also turning in a standout season was White, who finished second in the Pac-12 in kick return average (27.0). In addition, White was one of only five Pac-12 players to return a kickoff for a touchdown in 2015 and his 210 combined punt/kickoff return yards vs. West Virginia in the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl were the most in a game by a Pac-12 player last season.

Slocum's coaching also helped Sun Devil linebacker Antonio Longino post an outstanding senior campaign that culminated with Longino earning Pac-12 Honorable Mention recognition. A two-time Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week in 2015, Longino led the Pac-12 with 22.5 tackles for and 11 sacks, and ranked third in the FBS in tackles for loss and 11th in sacks. His 22.5 tackles for loss ranked as the sixth-highest single-season total in school history.

Slocum started his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M, under his father R.C. Slocum. In 1990, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, where he coached the defense. He returned to Texas A&M, coaching tight ends, linebackers, and special teams, from 1991 to 1997. From 1991 to 1993, Slocum helped the Aggies win three straight Southwest Conference championships. Between 1994-97, he coached two all-Americans – Shane Lechler and Lombardi Award winner Dat Nguyen – who both went on to play in the NFL.

During his seven-season coaching tenure at A&M, he was part of a staff that led the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl Classic appearances. Texas A&M's record was 94-28-2 from 1991-1997. The 94 wins were the sixth-most in the country and also the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

From 1998-1999, Slocum coached at the University of Southern California, where he tutored Butkus Award winner Chris Claiborne, Zeke Moreno, and Markus Steele. He returned to A&M again and coached the secondary and special teams from 2000-02. In 2005, he became assistant head coach and linebacker coach at Ole Miss, where he coached star linebacker Patrick Willis.

On February 6, 2006, Slocum joined the Green Bay Packers, becoming the assistant special teams coach. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2009. During his time in Green Bay the Packers won Super Bowl XLV in 2010, 31-25 over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Arlington, Texas. The Packers also claimed five division championships (2007, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014), played in three NFC Championship games (winning one, 2010) and appeared in the NFL Playoffs seven times (2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). Slocum also was invited to coach in three Pro Bowl games.

Shawn's father, R.C. Slocum, was head coach for Texas A&M from 1989 to 2002 and is the winningest coach in Texas A&M football history.

Born in Monticello, Arkansas, on February 21, 1965, Slocum graduated from Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas, in 1983 and attended Texas A&M University, where he played football as a linebacker. Slocum earned one letter with the team in 1984. He graduated with a B.S. in construction management degree in 1987 from the Texas A&M College of Architecture.

Slocum is currently married to the former Michelle Biehl and the couple has four children.

ASSISTANT COACH

TONY WHITE

ASSISTANT COACH | CORNERBACKS / DEFENSIVE PASSING
GAME COORDINATOR

Tony White, who spent the past nine seasons at San Diego State as the team's cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator, enters his first season as the cornerbacks coach and defensive passing game coordinator for Sun Devil Football.

White was twice named the Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year and earning recognition as one of the Top-5 recruiters in the nation among all Non-Power-5 programs in addition to helping the Aztec secondary continually rank as one of the elite groups in the nation.

San Diego State finished the 2017 season 11th nationally and first in the Mountain West in total defense in allowing just 314.5 yards per game and 15th in passing yards allowed (178.7).

San Diego State held 12 of its last 15 opponents to 375 yards or less of total offense. From Nov. 14, 2015 - Dec. 23, 2017 (includes 32 SDSU games), San Diego State ranked sixth in total offense allowed per game (303.3) and ninth nationally in points allowed per game (18.3).

SDSU finished with a pass coverage grade ranked 31st or better three of the last four seasons according to Pro Football Focus and did not finish lower than 41st in any of the previous four seasons.

Entering the 2017 season, SDSU's 100 interceptions were the third most in the country since 2011, while its 14 interceptions returned for a touchdown were tied for the fifth most over that span. The Aztecs' 49 interceptions in 2015 and 2016 were the most in a two-year span in FBS play since Boston College had 51 in the 2007 and 2008 campaigns. SDSU led the country in interceptions (26) in 2016.

In 2015, the Aztecs finished among the top 10 in the four main defensive categories, including a tie for second with 23 picks, fifth in total defense (287.3), seventh in scoring defense (16.4) and 10th in passing defense (178.6).

SDSU produced one of the best defensive efforts in school history in 2014, finishing in the top 20 nationally in nearly every defensive category, including scoring defense (13th) and total defense (16th).

With White's guidance, in 2016 Damontae Kazee earned his second Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year honor. Kazee became the first cornerback in MWC history to win the defensive player-of-the-year award twice and the fifth player overall. Kazee, the program's career record-holder in interceptions, was the first Aztec in program history with six or more interceptions in consecutive seasons. In the 2017 NFL Draft, Kazee was selected as the 149th overall pick in the fifth round by the Atlanta Falcons.

Kazee was named the 2015 Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year, a second-team All-American selection by USA Today, was an honorable-mention pick by Sports Illustrated and a first-team all-MWC honoree. His eight interceptions were tied for second most nationally and tied for the most in SDSU's Division I era and in Mountain West single-season history.

Kazee and J.J. Whittaker (second team) earned

All-Mountain West honors for the second-straight year after earning spots on the 2014 team (Kazee - second team; Whittaker - second team). That year, White was named the Rivals.com Non-Power 5 Top Recruiter.

San Diego State intercepted 14 passes in 2014, which tied for 29th nationally. The Aztecs ranked third in pass efficiency defense (112.1) in 2014 and allowed just 10 touchdowns through the air (second among Mountain West schools). White also guided SDSU's punt return unit to a league-leading punt return average.

In 2013, White earned Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter-of-the-Year honors for a second time. He helped Whittaker receive all-Mountain West honorable mention accolades in his first year of collegiate play in 2013. Whittaker led the squad with 14 passes defended (three interceptions, 11 pass breakups), which ranked fifth in the conference.

Under White's guidance, Leon McFadden became the fifth Aztec player in program history and the first since Kirk Morrison (2002-04) to garner first-team all-conference accolades in three consecutive seasons. McFadden, who owns the SDSU career record with 39 passes defended, was a third-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in the 2013 NFL Draft after setting career highs with 61 tackles and three interceptions, including two for touchdowns, during his senior campaign in 2012.

In 2011, White was named the Scout.com Mountain West Recruiter of the Year and both of the team's starting cornerbacks, McFadden and senior Larry Parker, earned first-team all-league honors. Parker, who was also tabbed an honorable mention All-American by SI.com, led the Mountain West in interceptions with seven to tie for fourth nationally in his first campaign as a starter. His seven picks were the most by an Aztec since 1969, and are tied for third in program history.

White helped the Aztec defense improve substantially in the national rankings in 2010, climbing from 62nd to 10th in pass efficiency defense (113.4) and from 53rd to 39th in pass defense (205.0 ypg.). SDSU allowed less than 200 yards through the air in eight of 13 contests.

In 2010, White tutored McFadden to his initial first-team all-conference accolade, while the team's other starting corner, senior Jose Perez, received honorable mention all-league recognition. The pair both ranked in the top five in the MW in passes defended.

In 2009, SDSU surrendered only 15 passing touchdowns, including four in non-conference action, after giving up 21 TDs in 2008. Opponents scored one passing touchdown or fewer in eight of 12 contests.

White came to San Diego State after spending 2008 alongside current Aztec head coach Rocky Long at New Mexico. White was in charge of the Lobos' linebackers.

At UNM, he coached two all-conference linebackers in Zach Arnett and Herbert Felder. New Mexico ended 2008 ranked 26th nationally in rushing defense, 45th nationally in total defense and 46th nationally in scoring defense.

Before moving to Albuquerque, White served as the graduate assistant in football operations at UCLA in 2007. White assisted with the day-to-day operations and administration, recruiting administration and provided professional scouts with player information and videos.

In 2006, he was the head football coach at St. Genevieve High School in Panorama City, Calif., where he led the team to its best record in 13 seasons and coached two first-team all-CIF selections.

During his playing career, White was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at outside linebacker for Bob Toledo at UCLA from 1997-2000. He served as a team captain during his senior campaign in 2000, making 64 tackles and earning the team's N.N. Sugarman Award for Best Leadership. He received his bachelor's degree in history from UCLA in 2002.

White spent four seasons playing in the Canadian Football League for the Calgary Stampeders, Ottawa Renegades and Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

He and his wife, Angela, have a son, Anthony III, and a daughter, Ava.

ASSISTANT COACH

ANTONIO PIERCE

ASSISTANT COACH | LINEBACKERS

Antonio Pierce, who spent the past four seasons as the head coach of the Long Beach Poly High School football program following a nine-year career in the NFL, enters his first season as the linebackers coach for the Sun Devil Football program.

Antonio Pierce, who spent the past four seasons as the head coach of the Long Beach Poly High School football program following a nine-year career in the NFL, enters his first season as the linebackers coach for the Sun Devil Football program.

Pierce posted a 31-13 record at Long Beach Poly, a school with numerous Sun Devil connections, including JoJo Wicker - an All-Pac-12 selection this season and three-year starter for the Sun Devils who signed a free agent contract with the Detroit Lions in 2018..

While leading the way at Long Beach Poly, Pierce's student-athletes earned 54 total scholarships to continue their education - 24 of whom did so at the Division I level. Other Sun Devils that have come to Tempe through the high school include Salamo Fiso, Mark Washington, Saute Sapolu, Leonard Russell, Onosai Tu'ua and Kendall Williams. The Long Beach Poly program has produced over 60 NFL players throughout the years - more than any other high school in the nation - while winning a record 19 CIF Championships.

Pierce took over at Long Beach Poly in 2014, where he became the school's first outside hire since 1971 as the program underwent an overhaul. He eventually would lead the Jackrabbits to the 2017 CIF Southern Section quarterfinals where they fell to eventual champion Mater Dei.

Pierce immediately instilled a sense of discipline in his players from the moment he arrived and put an emphasis on academics, raising the minimum GPA required for a student to be eligible for his football team and emphasized preparing his players to be professionals in life beyond high school.

During his nine-year NFL career, Pierce played 137 regular season games (and seven playoff games) with the Washington Redskins (2001-04) and New York Giants (2005-09). Pierce captained the Giants' defense for five seasons, including 2007 when he helped anchor the championship team that upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots for a victory in Super Bowl XLII. He was also named to the Pro Bowl that season.

Signed by the Redskins as an undrafted free agent in 2001, Pierce finished his career with 687 tackles, nine sacks and seven interceptions.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Pierce played college football at the University of Arizona. As a senior, he had three sacks, 77 tackles (10 for losses), two forced fumbles, one interception, and one blocked kick for the Wildcats. Prior to Arizona, Pierce attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif.

Beyond his on-field accomplishments, Pierce was the spokesperson for the Giants Academy inner city youth program in 2006, and he worked with a number of not-for-profit organizations, including YMCA, DARE, Cystic Fibrosis, My Sisters Place, ASC Football Camp, City Meals on Wheels and Make a Wish Foundation. Pierce received the United Way's Man of the Year award in 2007 and was honored by Minority Athletes

Networking Inc (M.A.N) as its 2008 'MAN of the Year,' for his excellence in the community. In 2011, Pierce was named to the California Community College Athletics Association's Hall of Fame.

In 2005, Pierce hosted his first annual free football camp for youth in his hometown of Compton, Calif., where it continued for seven years.

In 2006, Pierce started 'Antonio's A-List' at Giants Academy, the Giants charter academic program located in the Louise A. Spencer School in Newark, N.J. 'Antonio's A-List' is a motivational incentive program that rewarded Giants Academy Students that reached certain academic standards each semester and for the entire school year. Pierce visited the school, and accompanied the kids on service trips and preparing meals for the community.

During Antonio's NFL career he played for Marty Schottenheimer, Marvin Lewis, Steve Spurrier, George Edwards, Greg Williams, Joe Gibbs, Steve Spagnuolo and Tom Coughlin.

ASSISTANT COACH

SHAUN NUA

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

Veteran defensive line coach Shaun Nua enters his first season as the defensive line coach for Sun Devil Football. Nua spent the previous six seasons coaching the defensive line at the Naval Academy.

Navy compiled a 52-27 (.658) record during Nua's tenure, beating Army four times, earning bowl bids in each of the six seasons, winning four of those and winning three Commander-In-Chief Trophies.

"Shaun Nua is a well-respected and talented young coach with a bright future ahead of him," said ASU head coach Herm Edwards. "He is known for the high energy he brings while coaching his players and also for being an incredibly caring and compassionate person off the field. He is exactly the kind of person we want coaching at Arizona State."

"I'm excited. I'm honored. I'm ready. This is literally a dream come true for me," Nua said. "I am very familiar with the Sun Devil program and have experience in the state as Arizona is truly where I got my start in collegiate football. I look forward to helping Coach Edwards and his staff achieve their goals at ASU."

The Midshipmen went 7-6 this past season with a dominating effort in the Military Bowl, defeating Virginia, 49-7. Despite the six losses, Navy did not lose a contest by more than 10 points and allowed just 26.3 points per game and finished in the Top-50 in total defense.

Under Nua, defensive end Tyler Sayles finished third in the American Athletic Conference this season among ends with a 8.3 run-stop percentage despite playing the third-most run snaps of any end in the conference.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 games against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh, 44-28, in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

Defensive end Will Anthony was named First-Team All-AAC and First-Team All-East.

As a team, the defense finished the 2015 season ranked 32nd in rushing defense (143.0), 40th in total defense (364.9), 26th in scoring defense (21.8), 12th in red zone defense (.737), 13th in turnovers gained (27), first in fumbles recovered (15), third in turnover margin (+1.46), first in fewest penalties per game (3.1) and first in fewest penalty yards per game (26.1).

Navy finished the 2014 season with an 8-5 record, won a bowl game for just the ninth time in school history (beat San Diego State, 17-16, in the Poinsettia Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 campaign with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the ninth time in the last 11 years, qualified for a bowl game for the 10th time in the last 11 years, won a bowl game for just the eighth time in school history (beat Middle Tennessee, 24-6, in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th consecutive year.

Nua helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force, 28-21, in overtime and Army, 17-13, to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Nua came to the Naval Academy from Brigham Young, where he assisted for three seasons. He is a 2005 graduate of BYU where he received his bachelor's degree and would go on to earn his master's degree from the university as well.

Over his final two seasons in Provo, Nua helped the Cougars achieve the nation's 24th-best total defense in 2010 and the 13th-ranked defense in 2011. BYU won its bowl games both years while finishing the 2011 season ranked No. 25 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll with a 10-3 record.

As a player, Nua was a 6-foot-5, 280-pound defensive end at BYU from 2002-04 before being drafted in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Nua played four years in the NFL, three seasons with Pittsburgh and one in Buffalo, including a winning trip to the Super Bowl with the Steelers his rookie year in 2006.

Nua earned Second-Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a senior. He played in all 23 games of his BYU career, appearing in 12 games his junior season in 2002 and 11 games as a senior in 2004 (redshirted in 2003 due to an injury). He totaled 54 tackles in his two seasons, including 10 sacks and 16 tackles for loss.

Born on May 22, 1981, Nua is a native of Pago Pago, American Samoa. He transferred to BYU from Eastern Arizona Junior College, where he earned Junior College All-America honors. He prepped at Tafuna High School in Tafuna, American Samoa.

CHARLIE FISHER

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS

Charlie Fisher, with over 30 years of coaching experience under his belt and most recently the head coach at Western Illinois, enters his first season as the wide receivers coach for Sun Devil Football.

Fisher will take over the role left vacant by Rob Likens, who was promoted to ASU's offensive coordinator following the 2017 season.

"Charlie Fisher is an energetic and passionate coach with a wealth of experience who will be a great asset to Rob Likens and who will develop the young men on this football team both on and off the field," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "Coach Fisher has coached at all levels of the game and will utilize his over 30 years of coaching experience to continue helping us to impact what we already feel is an elite group of wide receivers."

"I'm excited to be part of the great tradition at Arizona State University and to be a part of what's being built with Coach Edwards," Fisher said. "I'm very humbled and grateful for this opportunity and can't thank Coach Edwards and Coach Likens enough for welcoming me to Tempe."

In two seasons with the Leathernecks, Fisher led the program to an 8-4 record in 2017 and a 14-9 overall record. The Leathernecks advanced to the first round of the 2017 FCS playoffs, where they fell to eighth-ranked Weber State.

Fisher led WIU to a top-10 ranking at some point in both the 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

Fisher helped to oversee the growth of linebacker Brett Taylor, who was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Defensive Player of the Year and the FCS ADA Linebacker of the Year while also being tabbed a first-team All-American by numerous outlets.

Led by Taylor, Western Illinois placed four players on STATS FCS' and Phil Steele's All-American teams, respectively. Taylor, wide receiver Jaelon Acklin and center Jacob Judd received honors on both squads, while defensive lineman Khaleen Saunders was placed on Phil Steele's All-American list.

Acklin was also named an AP All-American as he set school single-season records in 2017 with 84 receptions for 1,369 yards. The senior wide receiver's five 100-yard receiving games matched a program record, while his 10 receiving touchdowns tied for fifth.

Acklin finished the campaign second in the nation in receiving yards (1,369), fifth in receiving yards per game (114.1), seventh in total touchdowns (14), ninth in all-purpose yards per game (135.33), 11th in receptions per game (7.0) and 14th in receiving scores (10). He concluded his career eighth in WIU history with 1,733 receiving yards and tied for 10th with 12 receiving touchdowns.

Western Illinois finished the 2017 season ranked 29th nationally in passing yards at 241.3

yards per game while averaging just a tick under 400 yards of total offense per game, good for 40th in the FCS.

Two players were named All-American under Fisher in 2016, wide receiver Lance Lenoir, Jr. (all-time leading receiver in WIU history and most catches in MVFC history) and Taylor, who finished seventh in the Buck Buchanan Award voting. Lenoir also signed as a free agent following the 2016 season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Fisher spent two years at Richmond prior to joining Western Illinois, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2015 after holding the position of wide receivers coach and director of recruiting in 2014. In 2015, the Spiders advanced to the semifinals of the FCS playoffs (10-4 overall record) while earning a Top-10 national ranking.

During the 2015 season, Richmond featured a balanced offensive attack, ranking eighth nationally in third down conversions (47.4), 14th in passing efficiency (145.41), 18th in time of possession (32:31), 19th in total offense (451.9), 19th in red zone offense (.855), 23rd in scoring (33.0 ppg), 27th in passing (260.9) and 31st in rushing (190.9).

The Spiders scored 37 or more points in half of their 14 games, including wins at James Madison (59-49) as part of the ESPN College GameDay event and at Illinois State (39-27) in the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs.

Six offensive players earned All-Colonial Athletic Association honors (including three offensive players named All-American), and first-year quarterback Kyle Lauletta threw for the second-most passing yards in a season.

Richmond won nine games in 2014 and also advanced to the second round of the playoffs. That season the Spiders ranked eighth in the country in passing offense and were second in conversions on third and fourth down.

Western Illinois was the second head coaching stop for Fisher. From 1993-97, he was the head coach at West Georgia and posted a 36-17 record with a share of the 1997 Gulf South Conference championship and two postseason appearances. He coached 45 All-Gulf South Conference performers and seven All-Americans.

It was also at West Georgia where Fisher first crossed paths with Sun Devil offensive coordinator Rob Likens, who was an assistant at North Alabama at the time.

"Coach Likens and I go way back to when I was at West Georgia and he was at North Alabama and then I went to Temple as offensive coordinator when Rob was the wideouts coach,"

Fisher said. "This is a unique opportunity to reunite with him. We share a close friendship that goes beyond the X's and O's of the football field."

With more than 30 years of college coaching experience, Fisher has spent time as an assistant coach at: Penn State, Miami (Ohio), Vanderbilt, Temple, North Carolina State, West Georgia, Lenoir-Rhyne, Ole Miss and Eastern Kentucky. He was a graduate assistant on the 1982 Eastern Kentucky team that won the FCS national championship.

During his two years at Penn State, Fisher coached then true-freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg to five Big Ten Conference 'Freshman of the Week' awards and the 2013 'Freshman of the Year' accolade. Hackenberg had the third-most passing yards in the country by a true-freshman. The year before quarterback Matt McGloin led the Big Ten in total offense, passing yards, passing TDs and fewest interceptions.

In 2011 while at Miami (Ohio), Fisher served as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He mentored Zac Dysert to the nation's 11th-best passing offense and 14th nationally in total offense. Dysert increased his passing yards by 1,100 from one year to the next and threw for 25 TDs (12 more than the year prior).

Fisher spent nine years at Vanderbilt in various roles, including the co-passing game coordinator for the final five seasons. During the 2005 season he was part of the offensive staff that coached SEC Player of the Year Jay Cutler.

Fisher also coached wide receiver Earl Bennett, who was a semifinalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award (nation's best wide receiver). During his time, he coached two SEC Freshman of the Year award winners. The 2008 Commodores squad won their first bowl game in 26 years.

While at Temple as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the Owls recorded the most wins and second-most points in 10 years.

In his two years as the wide receivers coach at North Carolina State, Fisher coached the ACC Rookie of the Year (and eventual ninth overall pick in the NFL Draft) Koren Robinson, and 1998 consensus First Team All-American and ACC Player of the Year Torry Holt.

Fisher earned his bachelor's degree from Springfield College and a master's degree at Eastern Kentucky. He and his wife Julie have two sons: Brian and Brett.

ASSISTANT COACH

DAVE CHRISTENSEN

ASSISTANT COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE

Former University of Wyoming head coach and Dave Christensen - a veteran of 35 years within college football - enters his first season as the Sun Devil offensive line coach.

Christensen spent the 2017 season with the Sun Devil program in a non-coaching role and last coached the offensive line at Texas A&M during the 2015 season.

"Dave Christensen always seems to surround himself with exciting offenses and offensive lines that move the football and protect the quarterback," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "He brings over 30 years of coaching pedigree to this program and I'm excited to get him back in an area where he has always found success."

"I am grateful to Herm Edwards and Ray Anderson for this opportunity to be back in a position where I can coach young men," Christensen said. "Much of my career has been spent around the offensive lines of some very good football teams. The one we have here at Arizona State is no different and I look forward to working with them."

In 2015 at Texas A&M, Christensen oversaw the offensive line and run game under head coach Kevin Sumlin. The Aggies were 8-4 during the regular season and advanced to the Music City Bowl.

Under Christensen, the A&M rushing offense improved 20 spots in the national rankings in yards per game. His offensive lines rush blocking grade was rated 38th nationally and 19th among the Power Five programs according to Pro Football Focus while the pass blocking was 21st among the Power Five teams.

Christensen arrived in College Station after spending a year with the Utah Utes, where he was the program's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach. During the 2014 campaign, the Utah rushing attack was ranked third in the Pac-12 and 39th nationally at 190.4 yards per game while Devontae Booker finished second in the league at 116.3 yards per game.

That season, the Utah offensive line was also responsible for the 24th-best pass blocking grade in the country according to PFF.

From 2009-13, Christensen was the head coach at Wyoming where he compiled a 27-35 record in five seasons. In 2009, Christensen became the first Cowboy head coach to win a bowl game in his debut season when he led Wyoming to a 35-28 win over Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl. Two years later, Christensen was named the 2011 Mountain West Coach of the Year after the Cowboys compiled an 8-5 overall record, including a 5-2 record against MWC opponents.

He became a head coach after serving 17 years as an assistant for head coach Gary Pinkel at Toledo (1992-2000) and Missouri (2001-08). Christensen coached the offensive line at both schools and was the offensive coordinator from 1997-2008, including his entire stay at Missouri.

While at Missouri, Christensen devised a no-huddle attack that helped the Tigers advance to the Big 12 Championship Game in 2007 and 2008. In 2007, Christensen's offense used this scheme to good effect by scoring a school record 558 points.

Additionally, Missouri ranked fifth in total offensive yards (490.29 per game), eighth in scoring offense (39.86 points per game), and ninth in passing yards (314.07 per game). The same season propelled Chase Daniel to Heisman finalist status. Martin Rucker and Jeremy Maclin were named consensus All-Americans, making it the first time two Tigers were named as such in the same season. Christensen himself was a finalist for the Broyles Award and Rivals.com named him as the Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

In 2008, the Tigers finished fourth in the nation in passing offense (330.4 yards per game), No. 6 in scoring offense (42.2) and No. 8 in total offense (484.1).

The Tigers were nationally ranked offensively throughout Christensen's tenure as the offensive coordinator, which followed a successful stint at Toledo. During his nine years as a Toledo assistant (the last four as the offensive coordinator), the Rockets set numerous school records on offense while winning one Mid-American Conference championship and two MAC West titles (tying for another).

Christensen also served assistant coaching stints at Western Washington (1983), Eastern Washington (1986-87), Washington (1988-89, graduate assistant) and Idaho State (1990-91).

As an undergraduate, Christensen played offensive line at Washington from 1980-82. He earned a bachelor's degree from Western Washington in 1985 and a master's degree from Eastern Washington in 1988.

ASSISTANT COACH

DONNIE YANTIS

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

Donnie Yantis enters his first season as assistant coach (tight ends) for Sun Devil Football after spending the prior two years as the program's assistant athletics director for football recruiting.

"I have gotten to know Coach Yantis very well in my early days on the job and have seen the dedication and passion he has put into his role with recruiting," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said after announcing Yantis' expanded role. "He has plenty to add on the coaching spectrum as well and know what it takes to build a program. I am excited to move Donnie into this position."

Prior to arriving at ASU Yantis spent the previous two seasons as the head football coach at Arizona Christian University, where he developed the program in its first season as a NAIA college football program. He was responsible for hiring an entire coaching staff, along with recruiting an entire football team in his first year.

In 2015 Yantis was named Central States Football League (CSFL) Coach of the Year as he led ACU to a CSFL Conference Championship, going undefeated in the conference. In his first season as a college coach he was named the NAIA Independent Conference Coach of the Year.

Yantis' 14 seasons as the head coach at Paradise Valley High School in Phoenix also assisted him in building relationships with Arizona high school football coaches, helping with the recruitment process.

Yantis started coaching at his alma mater Paradise Valley High shortly after concluding his playing career and earning his bachelor's degree from Southern Utah University. After serving as recruiting coordinator at Glendale Community College, he earned a Master's Degree from NAU and took his first high school head coaching job at age 28 at Glendale High. The next year he moved to PV High, where he compiled a record of 94-70 and was the winningest coach in school history with nine playoff appearances in 13 seasons.

Under Yantis' direction at Paradise Valley the offense broke every school record in both passing and rushing yards, first downs, and points scored. As a high school coach Yantis produced 16 Division I athletes, 21 junior college athletes, and five Division II athletes.

As an athlete, Yantis played for Paradise Valley High as a quarterback, wide receiver, defensive back, linebacker, and a punter, and then moved on to play for Glendale Community College and Southern Utah University.

ASSISTANT COACH

JOE CONNOLLY

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

Joe Connolly - formerly the assistant athletics director for sports performance at Massachusetts
- enters his first season as the head coach for sports performance for Sun Devil Football.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, S.C., Connolly served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Louisville. He worked with the Cardinal football program, primarily focusing on the skill position players. Connolly began his professional career at Harvard in 2007, assisting with all 41 sports, including the league's championship football team. He was hired as a full-time assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Crimson in 2008 and served as the head strength and conditioning coach for men's volleyball while continuing to assist with the other programs.

Connolly holds a Master of Science in physical education with a concentration in strength and conditioning from Bridgewater State, graduating magna cum laude in 2007. He is a 2004 graduate of the University of Hartford, where he earned degrees in criminal justice and sociology. He was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and was given the Senior Award for great sportsmanship and perseverance. Connolly is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association (CSCCA) and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Connolly is a current competitor in Olympic weightlifting, drug-free powerlifting, Highland games and strongman competitions. He is joined in Tempe by his wife, Shalona.

Connolly came to ASU from UMass where he served as the director of sports performance. In his role, Connolly worked primarily with the University of Massachusetts football program.

In his first year with the program, Connolly helped develop Elijah Wilkinson – a 6-6, 329-pound offensive lineman that was an undrafted free agent following the 2016 campaign and went on to appear in nine games for the Denver Broncos in 2017.

Connolly also oversaw the strength and conditioning development of tight end Adam Breneman. Breneman was named to the USA TODAY College Football All-

American Team as one of the two best tight ends in the country. He finished the 2017 season as the top-ranked tight end in the nation for receptions per game (5.8) and second for most receiving yards per game (69.5)

Breneman became the just third Minuteman selected to a major, national All-America team. A native of Barnstable, Mass., Connolly arrived in Amherst after seven seasons working with the football program at the University of South Carolina. During his time with the Gamecocks, he coached 30 NFL Draft picks, including the 2014 No. 1 selection Jadeveon Clowney, and 29 of his former players are currently active on NFL rosters.

SAM BENNETT

FOOTBALL ANALYST

After serving as a graduate assistant for two seasons, Sam Bennett was named offensive analyst by ASU head coach Herm Edwards on March 12, 2018.

"I see a lot of potential in Sam Bennett and feel he will be an asset to our program," Edwards said. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow in this role while learning from the rest of the coaches on the staff. His relentless energy is an essential part of how we operate."

Bennett will transition into the role of analyst after serving as an offensive graduate assistant the past two seasons. The Sun Devil offense averaged 32.6 points and 411.56 yards per game the past two seasons with Bennett as part of the offensive staff. Bennett worked closely with an ASU offense that finished as the 14th-highest graded unit in the FBS according to Pro Football Focus. Utilizing his background as a former offensive lineman in high school, Bennett worked extensively with an offensive line that paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher and another 650-yard rusher. The offense scored 30 or more points 16 times in the two seasons Bennett served as an offensive graduate assistant.

"I'm excited and appreciative for the opportunity given to me by Coach Edwards and the coaching staff to remain at ASU in this role," Bennett said. "My wife and I are excited to be staying in Tempe and continuing to be a part of the Sun Devil family. I look forward to a great spring and 2018 season here in Tempe."

Bennett came to Arizona State to be an offensive graduate assistant after serving in a similar position at Rice University from 2014-16. While at Rice, he earned his Master's Degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences in 2016. Before taking a year off of coaching to work in the private business sector, Bennett coached football, basketball, and track at Scoggins Middle School in Frisco for one year after graduating from Texas Tech with a B.A. in Advertising in December of 2010.

The son of 40-year coaching veteran and former Sun Devil defensive coordinator Phil Bennett, Bennett was a two-year letterman at SMU as a deep snapper, earning All C-USA Freshman honors in 2006. He graduated from Highland Park High School in Dallas, Texas, where he was a starter on the Scots' 15-0 state championship squad. He played on the offensive line, blocking for future Detroit Lions quarterback Matthew Stafford as well as handling the deep snapping chores.

Bennett and his wife Stephanie reside in Tempe.

ANTHONY GARNETT

FOOTBALL ANALYST

Former college quarterback and 10-year coaching veteran Anthony Garnett was appointed defensive analyst for Sun Devil Football on March 13, 2018.

Garnett joins the staff after most recently serving as the special teams coordinator and the strength & conditioning coach at De Anza College in Cupertino, Calif. He was responsible for all special teams calls on gameday for the Dons, helping the team double its win total in his first season on staff.

Garnett played his collegiate ball at Cal Poly, earning a full scholarship after transferring from junior college. During his time as a Mustang, Garnett led the school to its highest national ranking since transitioning to the Division I-AA (FCS) level. He served as the Mustangs team captain and led the 2005 team to its first DI-AA playoff berth. Cal Poly also captured the 2004 Great West conference title in Garnett's second season in San Luis Obispo.

Garnett compiled accolades at Cal Poly that include a First-Team All Great West selection in 2005. Garnett finished top-10 in the nation in passing efficiency (158.1), totaling 21 passing TDs while adding 12 rushing TDs in 13 games leading the Mustangs to a 10-3 record in 2005. Garnett graduated from Cal Poly in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology.

Garnett has made several stops during his 10-year coaching career, including the 2016-17 season serving as the assistant head coach with offensive coordinator duties as well as the defensive backs coach for the Seaside High School Varsity Football Program. In his only season coaching, Garnett led the Spartans to an undefeated season and a Monterey Bay League Title and sectional semifinals appearance as a number two seed in California Interscholastic Federation Central Coast Section Playoffs.

Garnett has extensive experience at the junior college level, with connections to several prominent CCCAA schools. From 2014-16, he served as the tight ends and wide receivers coach at Monterey Peninsula College in Monterey, Calif. He was responsible for developing the weekly schematic framework of passing plays as the passing game coordinator and assisted in the offensive coordinator's game planning. While coaching at MPC, Garnett earned his Master of Science in Recreation and Sport Pedagogy Concentration in Coaching Education from Ohio University at the Patton College of Education Earned in 2015.

Before entering the junior college coaching ranks, Garnett was the quarterbacks coach at Missouri University S&T at the NCAA Division II level. While a member of the Knights coaching staff from 2010-12, he assisted the offensive coordinator with weekly game planning by creating detailed scouting reports on opposing defenses. The offense scored 14 more touchdowns in his second year compared to his first year on campus.

DEREK HAGAN

ANALYST

2015 Arizona State University Hall of Fame Inductee Derek Hagan, who graduated from ASU as the Pac-12 Conference's all-time leader in receptions, was named offensive analyst for Sun Devil Football on April 12, 2018.

"We are extremely pleased to be adding Derek Hagan to our coaching staff," said ASU head coach Herm Edwards. "I am enthusiastic about what Derek brings to the table as not only one of the greatest receivers in school history, but as a former NFL player as well. He will be a valuable asset to our staff."

"With all of the positive things that are happening with Sun Devil Football I wanted to be a part of that," says Hagan. "I wanted to do something to help Coach Edwards and the staff take the program to the next level. I had a nice high school career, but ASU is the place in which I elevated my game. It started daily in practice and eventually carried over to the games. There's nothing like the Maroon and Gold."

Hagan played wide receiver for the Sun Devils from 2002-05, a period in which the program enjoyed some of the greatest offensive success in school history. He appeared in 50 games across four seasons at Arizona State, finishing his career as one of the greatest receivers in both school and Pac-12 history.

Hagan left Arizona State as the Pac-12 record holder for career receptions with 258, ranks second all-time in the conference with 3,939 yards, and broke five school records, including receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, 100-yard games and receiving yards per game as he averaged more than 100 yards per game in his final two seasons.

The two-time semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award earned First-Team All-Pac 12 honors after his final season in Maroon and Gold. A captain during his senior season, Hagan is the owner of three of the top seven highest single-season receiving yardage totals in school history and finished with more than 150 receiving yards in eight games. He caught a pass in 41 consecutive games to end his career and had at least one reception in 48 of 50 career games.

He was selected in the third round of the National Football League draft by the Miami Dolphins, where he spent three seasons. Hagan would move on to play for the New York Giants, Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills before ending his career with the Tennessee Titans. Hagan compiled 148 receptions for 1,734 yards and seven touchdowns during his nine-year NFL career.

For the past two seasons, Hagan has worked alongside Tim Healey and Jeff Van Raaphorst as the sideline reporter covering Arizona State football for The Sun Devil Sports Network.

KEVIN MAWAE

ANALYST

Sixteen-year NFL veteran Kevin Mawae joined the Arizona State football program as an offensive analyst on March 12, 2018.

"Kevin Mawae is one of the most respected voices in football," said ASU head coach Herm Edwards.

"He will add a tremendous amount of credibility and knowledge to our coaching staff. I am thrilled that I get the opportunity to reunite with one of my favorite players to coach."

Mawae brings a vast amount of experience to Tempe, as the former NFL center has spent the past 20 years involved in the game. He earned First Team All-Pro honors six times while being named to the Pro Bowl eight times. He is a member of the NFL 2000s All-Decade Team, named to the First Team All-Decade as a center. His 238 career starts places him fifth among offensive linemen in NFL history in that category. Throughout his career, Mawae was known as an elite run blocker as an interior offensive lineman. He blocked for some of the most productive running backs in league history, as evidenced by the fact that he paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in 13 of his 16 pro seasons.

The 1993 graduate of LSU was selected in the second round (36th overall pick) by the Seattle Seahawks. While at LSU, Mawae earned AP First Team All-SEC honors in 1991 while receiving AP Second Team All-SEC recognition his final two seasons in Baton Rouge ('92 & '93).

During his first two professional seasons, Mawae started 27 games at right guard, including all 16 games in only his second NFL season. He exclusively switched to center in his third season, which proved to be the right decision. Mawae started all 16 games over the next nine seasons (177 consecutive starts) at one of the most physically demanding positions in the sport.

"I have a lot of respect for Coach Edwards, whom I played for for five years," said Mawae. "His character and integrity are second to none. I knew that when my playing career was finished and I wanted to enter the coaching profession that he was the type of person that I wanted to work for. My daughter, Abigail, has signed a letter of intent to swim for Coach Bob Bowman and the Sun Devil swimming program. Both she and I fell in love with the University then."

After four seasons with the Seahawks, Mawae signed with the New York Jets became one of the faces of the franchise. The impact of his career was felt by many in the organization, culminating in a Ring of Honor induction in 2017. Immediately after joining the Jets, Mawae helped them win the AFC East in his first season. Eventually, the team would earn a berth in the 1998 AFC Championship Game, which represented the Jets first Conference Championship Game appearance since 1982 (17 years).

While in New York, Mawae played for Edwards from 2001-05. The team won at least nine games in three seasons while Edwards and Mawae were together, including an AFC East title and playoff victory during the 2002 season. Mawae was selected to the Pro Bowl six times and All-Pro first team twice in eight seasons as a member of the Jets.

A triceps injury cut his final season as a Jet (2005) short and also ended his consecutive starts streak at an incredible 177. After vigorously rehabbing his injury, Mawae would sign with the Tennessee Titans as an unrestricted free agent. He would show no signs of decline after his injury, as his iron man traits would continue to be on full display in Tennessee. Mawae would go on to start 61 of a possible 64 games as a member of the Titans. During the 2008 season, Mawae was part of the best offensive line in franchise history. He helped set a franchise benchmark in 2008, as the Titans allowed just 12 sacks, which was tied for the fewest in the NFL. That season included a stretch in which the Titans did not allow a sack in five consecutive games.

Mawae continued to give back to the game by fighting for other NFL players towards the latter part of and after his career. He was named the 14th NFLPA President on March 19, 2008, taking over from Troy Vincent. Mawae served as the NFLPA President for four seasons, including guiding and organizing the players through the 2011 NFL lockout. Mawae continues to give back to the community through his post-career endeavors. He has financially supported the Children's Cup International Relief missions, whose mission is to equip local churches to transform communities through holistic child development. In addition, he created the "First and Goal Challenge," which is a unique program to benefit the hospital's Child Life Program and Pediatric Services.

TIM CASSIDY

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL

Tim Cassidy joined the Arizona State University football program as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Football in January 2012. Cassidy spent the previous four seasons as the Associate Athletic Director for football at Texas A&M University and is widely considered one of the top football administrators in the country.

Cassidy's fundraising efforts were instrumental in securing gifts from benefactors for ASU's new Student Athlete Facility, the 118,669-square-foot structure that serves as the home of Sun Devil Football. Cassidy's expertise was also pivotal in designing various aspects of the $57 million project, which set a new standard for such facilities in excellence and innovation in fulfilling all the daily needs of student-athletes.

Cassidy had 23 years of experience at Texas A&M rising from graduate assistant to recruiting coordinator, to assistant athletic director, to associate athletic director. During his career at Texas A&M, Cassidy was part of several championship teams. He was part of the 1985 and 1986 Southwest Conference Champions, the 1991, 1992 and 1993 Southwest Conference Championship squads, as well as the 1997, 1998 and 2010 Big 12 South title teams and the 1998 overall Big 12 Champion unit.

Cassidy coordinated travel, recruiting, budget and staffing for the football office, assisted with scheduling and oversaw the compliance, strength and conditioning, equipment and academic support units regarding football and he supervised the football support staffs.

While serving as recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M, Cassidy had a proven eye for identifying the nation's best talent as he assisted with the recruitment of quarterback Johnny Manziel (winner of the 2012 Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, AP Player of the Year and was a consensus all-American), defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh (winner of the 2009 Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award, Bronco Nagurski Trophy, Chuck Bednarik Award and AP Player of the Year) and offensive tackle Luke Joeckel (winner of the 2012 Outland Trophy).

Cassidy served as the associate athletic director for football at the University of Nebraska before his recent stint with the Aggies. In addition to working with the football staff and assisting in recruiting efforts, Cassidy was a key member of the athletic administration with the Huskers.

With more than 35 years of experience working in college football, Cassidy was instrumental in the planning of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex that houses the Nebraska football team, coaches' offices, training room, weight room and administrative offices. He also assisted with the planning for the Texas A&M Bright Football Complex and the Nye Academic Center - a $28 million venture. The Bright Complex houses all of the football areas while the Nye Academic Center is an academic area for all Aggie student-athletes.

Cassidy, who has been a member of staffs that have earned a combined 23 appearances in bowl games (including Sugar, Cotton, Alamo and Holiday), had three tours of duty with the Aggies. He came to A&M from Morningside College where he was an assistant football coach from 1981-83. He joined Jackie Sherrill's Texas A&M staff as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 1983-84 and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985-86. Cassidy was also the recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida from 1987-88.

Cassidy and his wife Nancy have three children: Ryan (33), Austin (29) and Danielle (28). His wife is a senior accounting lecturer at ASU's W.P. Carey School of Business.

AL LUGINBILL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Al Luginbill was named director of player personnel by ASU head coach Herm Edwards on May 10, 2018. Luginbill brings experience not only as an Arizona State defensive coordinator and assistant coach, with two Fiesta Bowl Championships on his record, but for the past twelve years he has owned and operated Fastak Enterprises, a company specializing in football player evaluation from the high school to the NFL level.

As part owner of Football Scouts Inc. from 2001 to 2006, Luginbill focused on NFL free agency and NFL draft prospects, developing a user friendly searchable database for both. He then implemented ESPN's high school recruiting website, also providing a user friendly database. ESPN purchased Football Scouts, Inc. in 2006, abbreviating the name to Scouts, Inc., which it continues to use to this day.

From 2006 until 2011, Luginbill was contracted by the Denver Broncos to evaluate NFL players for free agency and college players who had first, second, and third round grades. Also from 2008-2017, he worked with Under Armour and ESPN to implement the Under Armour All-America Football Game for high school seniors. His relationship with Under Armour was expanded to include all football-related events on the high school level, including camps, combines and other special events. Fastak Enterprises was involved in the creation of UC Report, a recruiting database that specializes in the evaluation of high school football prospects at the freshman and sophomore level.

Luginbill began his coaching career at Pasadena City College as a linebacker coach. He became an assistant coach at Arizona State under Frank Kush as the defensive back coach in 1972, helping ASU to a Fiesta Bowl win. After a return to Pasadena CC as head coach and a national championship in the Junior Rose Bowl, and a stint at the University of Wyoming, Luginbill returned to ASU in 1979, eventually becoming defensive coordinator. He helped lead the Sun Devils to another Fiesta Bowl victory. Among his recruiting successes at ASU were future NFL Hall of Fame members Mike Haynes and Randall McDaniel.

San Diego State named Luginbill as its head football coach in 1989, where he spent the next five years. He was named Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1991 after earning a berth in the Freedom Bowl. Among his standout recruits at SDSU were NFL Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk and six-time Pro Bowler La'Roi Glover. Keith Turley was a first-round draft pick and Darnay Scott and Will Blackwell were both selected in the second-round of the NFL Draft.

Assistant coach Sean Payton went on to coach the New Orleans Saints, leading them to their first Super Bowl championship. Other former assistants under Luginbill's tutelage who went on to earn head coaching positions were Curtis Johnson at Tulane and Steve Fairchild at Colorado State.

In 1995, Luginbill was hired by the NFL as director of football operations and coach of the Amsterdam Admirals of the World League, later known as NFL Europe. Being responsible for all aspects of player evaluation, Luginbill had access to all 32 NFL player personnel departments. Draft preparation included evaluating young players that did not make NFL active rosters. Kurt Warner, Jake Delhomme, Jay Fiedler, Darren Bennett, Tom Nutter, Adam Vinatieri and Bobby Hamilton all became successful NFL starters after playing in this organization.

Following his success with the NFL Luginbill was hired by the XFL as director of football operations and head coach of the Los Angeles Xtreme, leading his team to the XFL Championship in 2001. Quarterback Tommy Maddox was MVP of the league and went on to become the NFL Comeback Player of the Year the following season.

Luginbill earned his bachelor's degree (business/history/physical education) from California State Polytechnic University and master's degree (higher education and administration) from USC. He and his wife, Sue, live in Chandler. They have grown twins, Tom and Kerry. Kerry, lives nearby with her family and Tom is a football analyst with ESPN and resides in the Charlotte, North Carolina, area with his wife Tennille and their son Quaid and daughter Keaton.

RYNE REZAC

ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Ryne Rezac enters his first season as the On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator for Sun Devil Football.

Rezac joined ASU from the University of Nevada where he served as the Director of Player Personnel and Recruiting under former Sun Devil Football assistant Jay Norvell beginning in January 2017. In his role, Rezac maintained Nevada's recruiting and operations budgets and coordinated all records and information for incoming recruits and current personnel.

Prior to arriving in Reno, Rezac was a part of the Sun Devil Football staff from 2014-16 in three different roles. He first served as a volunteer for recruiting, operations, defense and offense from 2014-15, assisting with charting games, day-to-day operations, film review, postgame analysis charts and breakdown of opponents' film.

Rezac became a management intern for recruiting and operations in 2016, assisting with social media, organizing summer camps and other aspects of recruiting.

From there, Rezac was promoted to his incoming role of On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator, which he held from 2016-17. He was in charge of planning all recruiting visits, social media, scouting video and reports for Sun Devil Football.

Rezac graduated from North Central College in Naperville, Illinois, with a double major in Sports Business and Management in 2014. As a football student-athlete at NCC, Rezac was a part of the winningest class in program history, earning a 44-7 record.

He is currently working toward a master's degree in Educational Leadership: High Education. While at North Central College, Rezac served on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and helped to create the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) at NCC.

Rezac lives in Gilbert, Ariz. with his wife, Lucia, and her daughter Maile.

FREDERICK GAMMAGE

PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Former Sun Devil wide receiver Frederick Gammage joined the Sun Devil staff as a Player Personnel Assistant in May of 2018. Gammage served as a management intern for Sun Devil Football in 2017.

Gammage played in 44 games from 2012-16 for the Sun Devils after redshirting as a freshman. In the four seasons that Gammage donned the Maroon and Gold, the Sun Devils went a combined 31-21. Gammage was part of Arizona State's back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2013 and 2014. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Wellness from Arizona State in May of 2016.

Gammage steadily developed into a solid pass catching option for the Sun Devils, culminating in a breakout final season. In 2016, he set career highs with 26 receptions, 334 yards and two touchdowns. He saved the best performance of his career for his last game as a Sun Devil, recording career-bests with 12 receptions and 116 yards while adding a touchdown in ASU's Territorial Cup game vs. Arizona.

As a part of the Arizona State football program for five years, Gammage participated in over 100 hours of community service initiatives involving organizations such as Boys and Girls Club, Salvation Army, and St. Mary's Food Bank.

CESAR OCHOA

PLAYER PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Cesar Ochoa enters his first season as Player Personnel Assistant, after serving on the Sun Devil Football staff for the past two seasons in two different capacities.

In 2017, Ochoa served as a management intern where he helped with recruiting. His duties included planning recruiting strategies, creating itineraries for recruiting events and keeping in contact with recruits among other responsibilities.

Before his time as management intern, Ochoa was a recruiting intern for the Sun Devils. In this role, he managed a recruiting database, cut game film for coaches and assisted with determining athlete potentials for recruiting.

Ochoa also served as motivational speaker from 2013-15 at a range of businesses like The Arizona Agribusiness & Equine Center and local schools such as South Mountain Community College and Cesar Chavez High School.

He has also served in the community, volunteering with Chicanos Por La Causa in Phoenix where he supervised volunteers.

Ochoa graduated with his degree in Community Sports Management from Arizona State in 2016.

DANNY WHITE

CONSULTANT/SUN DEVIL CLUB AMBASSADOR

College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Danny White, who led Arizona State to three consecutive bowl games and led the NFL Dallas Cowboys to five consecutive playoff appearances as their starting quarterback, returned to the ASU football program as a consultant and as an Ambassador in conjunction with Sun Devil Athletics and the Sun Devil Club in 2017.

White was the Sun Devil starting quarterback from 1971-73. Playing for legendary head coach Frank Kush, White was part of three Western Athletic Conference Championship teams, compiling a combined record of 32-4. In addition, White led ASU to victories in the first three Fiesta Bowls. He was selected first-team all-America in 1973 by Time Magazine, Football Writers and NEA and second-team all-America the same year by United Press International and Associated Press.

While at ASU, White set seven NCAA passing records, and was named the second highest rated college quarterback of all time by Sports Illustrated. White was a member of the inaugural class inducted into the ASU Sports Hall of Fame in 1975.

Following two seasons with the World Football League Memphis Southmen, White joined the Cowboys. He took over as Dallas' starting quarterback in 1980, establishing a then-franchise record for touchdown passes in a season (29). White guided the Cowboys to three consecutive appearances in the NFC Championship Game in his first three years as the starter.

Following his playing career, White was named the first head coach and general manager of the Arena Football League Arizona Rattlers. Under his leadership, the Rattlers earned five berths in the league's championship game (ArenaBowl), winning the championship in 1994 and 1997. He finished his coaching career with a 141-65 won-loss record, and was inducted into the Arena Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Currently, White serves as an analyst for Cowboys games on Compass Media Networks.

KYLE
GRAY

MANAGEMENT INTERN

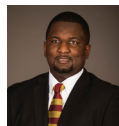

The 2018 season with be Kyle Gray's third season assisting with the daily operations of Sun Devil Football.

In his current role, Gray serves as the liaison to communicate scheduling to the Sr. Associate AD, operations & facilities, media relations, sports performance management, equipment management and sports medicine; coordinates all scheduling with officials, grounds crew and tram drivers; assists with the planning and coordinating of team summer camps, team schedule, team meals, special events and clinics; and assists with the coordination of the team's annual stay at Camp Tontozona.

Gray came to ASU from Arizona Christian University where he spent a year and a half as the director of football operations and defensive quality control coach.

Gray spent two seasons as an offensive assistant coach at North Canyon High School where he developed and implemented game plans and handled offensive play calling duties during freshmen football games.

A 2014 graduate of Northern Arizona (B.S. degree in business administration), Gray was a seasonal assistant in the operations and distribution management areas of the Fiesta and Insight Bowls for two years.

MARKUS ALLEYNE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Markus Alleyne is in his third season as Director of Player Development for the Sun Devil football program.

Prior to his appointment at ASU Alleyne was at Iowa State where he had two separate stints working in football operations over a six-year period. Alleyne initially joined the Cyclone football program as assistant director of operations in 2009. In 2013 he came to the Valley to work for the Fiesta Bowl before returning to Iowa State later in the year as Assistant Athletics Director of Football Operations.

In his most recent position at Iowa State Alleyne coordinated the daily, weekly and monthly schedules of the Iowa State coaching staff, players and support staff. He also oversaw the football budget and the Gridiron Club and arranged trade-out for a variety of different team functions.

Alleyne, a native of Montreal, served as director of player relations at Akron for two seasons prior to his arrival at Iowa State. He spent his initial two UA campaigns as a football operations assistant. Alleyne also coordinated the Zips' community service projects.

In his position at Akron, he helped with administrative duties, including coordination of team travel, summer camps and recruiting visits. Alleyne also served as the UA football program's liaison with the NFL. In addition, he was the school's academic support services contact.

Prior to joining the Akron staff Alleyne was an intern under the assistant general manager for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. He also served an internship at the McGill University Sports Complex and worked extensively with the YMCA Montreal.

Alleyne has a degree in recreation administration from Concordia University (Montreal), and a business administration degree from Vanier College (Montreal). In December of 2007, Alleyne received his master's degree in sport management from Akron.

NATE WAINWRIGHT

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Nate Wainwright enters his first season as the Special Assistant to the Head Football Coach.

Wainwright last worked in athletics as the Associate Director of Athletics at Lehman College from 2010 to 2012. He supervised and coordinated day-to-day operations for 17 NCAA Division III varsity sports.

Prior to that, Wainwright worked for three years from 2006 to 2009 as the Manager of Football Operations and Player Development for the Kansas City Chiefs. Wainwright served as Herm Edwards' assistant in addition to assisting with the scouting of free agents and draft-eligible players. He also assisted in the coaching and management of the defense.

Before working with Chiefs, Wainwright was the Executive Administrator to the head coach for the New York Jets from 2001 to 2006. His duties included assisting the head coach and defensive coordinator, organizing and coaching the scout team, producing the defensive playbook for the team, aiding in the coaching of defensive backs during practice, and recording formation and plays for the team to analyze at halftime.

Wainwright started his career in 1998 as a tickets sales associate for the New Orleans Saints.

THIS SPACE IS DEDICATED TO FRANK KUSH

(January 20, 1929 – June 22, 2017) , a name synonymous with Sun Devil football

After serving three years as an assistant coach under Dan Devine, Kush was named the 15th football Head Coach in school history in 1958. Over 21 and a half seasons, Kush won 176 games, took ASU to seven bowl games (posting a 6-1 record) and led the Sun Devils to a 12-0 season and number two national ranking in 1975.

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. Over his ASU coaching career, Coach Kush produced three College Football Hall of Fame and three Pro Football Hall of Fame members, as well as 10 NFL/AFL first-round draft picks, 17 Pro Bowl participants and 128 NFL players overall.

RANKINGS AND STREAKS

ASU IN THE PRESEASON RANKINGS

Since the AP began a preseason poll, ASU has been ranked 19 times to begin the year. The Sun Devils were tabbed No. 3 in 1976, behind Nebraska and Michigan. Of the 21 times ASU has appeared in the AP preseason poll, 1976 and 1998 are the only times the Sun Devils were in the top 10.

ASU IN THE FINAL POLLS

Arizona State has been ranked nationally at season's end 17 times. The Sun Devils' highest ranking came in 1975 when they finished second nationally in both major polls (Associated Press-media, United Press International-coaches) behind national champion Oklahoma.

ASU's 10-1-1 team of 1986, which completed its Pac-10 title season by defeating Michigan 22-15 in the Rose Bowl, was ranked fourth and fifth nationally by AP and UPI, respectively. In 1996, ASU completed an undefeated (11-0) regular season before losing to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, finishing ranked fourth in both major polls.

Here are ASU's final national rankings:

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mike Martz was an assistant football coach for Arizona State. From 1983 to 1987 he coached the quarterbacks and receivers, then became the offensive coordinator from 1988 to 1991. Martz would become offensive coordinator and the mastermind of the St. Louis Rams' Greatest Show on Turf. After helping St. Louis earn a Super Bowl victory in 1999, he would become head coach for the next five seasons and would again take the team on another Super Bowl trip.

Lovie Smith began coaching linebackers on the college level in 1983. He joined the Sun Devil coaching staff as an assistant coach from 1988 to 1991. Smith would go on to the pros and serve as head coach of the Chicago Bears from 2004 to 2012. In 2006, he would lead the Bears to a Super Bowl appearance against the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLI. He served as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for two seasons before being made the head coach at the University of Illinois on March 7, 2016

Hue Jackson spent four years at Arizona State as an assistant coach. Jackson was ASU's running backs coach from 1992 to 1994, and then handled the Sun Devil quarterbacks in 1995. Jackson has coached on multiple NFL teams that include the Washington Redskins, Atlanta Falcons, Baltimore Ravens, Oakland Raiders and Cincinnati Bengals. He was given the head-coaching job for the Raiders during the 2011-2012 season. After serving as the Bengals offensive coordinator for two seasons, Jackson was hired as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Jan. 13th, 2016

Arizona State University

Where highly ranked inspires uniquely capable

Recognized as the country's "most innovative" university by U.S. News & World Report in 2016 and 2017, ASU provides access to an education that inspires its students to become master learners, capable of learning anything throughout their lives. For society, ASU innovation provides the benefits of purpose-based, real-world discovery from a university that is deeply embedded in the fabric and advancement of society.

Welcome to ASU, where the charter is a straightforward statement of purpose: "ASU is a comprehensive public research university, measured not by whom it excludes, but rather by whom it includes and how they succeed; advancing research and discovery of public value; and assuming fundamental responsibility for the economic, social, cultural and overall health of the communities it serves."

ASU's research enterprise has quadrupled over the past decade, earning it recognition in the 2016 Higher Education Research and Development rankings as the country's fastest-growing research university with expenditures of $100 million or more, ahead of all others in the category, including Harvard, Yale and Duke. Driven by "moonshot thinking" that tackles enormous challenges with radical solutions and breakthrough technology, ASU played a significant role in developing a treatment for Ebola and a low-cost test for the Zika virus, while its scientists have developed orbiting satellites the size of an egg and been awarded the direction of a deep-space mission utilizing ASU-developed equipment and instrumentation. ASU is simultaneously producing the largest number of faculty Fulbright Scholars

Best in the U.S.: ASU is #1 in innovation

U.S. News & World Report has recognized ASU as the country's "most innovative" university for two years running, earning the No. 1 spot ahead of No. 2 Stanford and No. 3 MIT. The publication is not the only one giving ASU high grades above many of the nation's elite colleges and Pac-12 peers.

- #1 fastest-growing Research I university in the U.S. with $100 million-plus in annual research expenditures, ahead of Harvard, Yale and Duke (NSF Higher Education Research and Development survey)
- #3 university in the U.S. chosen by international students, ahead of Columbia, Cornell and California-Berkeley (Institute of International Education Open Doors report)
- #4 graduate degree program in the U.S. for city management and urban policy, ahead of Harvard, California-Berkeley and Syracuse (U.S. News & World Report)
- #5 graduate degree program in the U.S. for supply chain management and logistics, ahead of Stanford, California-Berkeley and Carnegie Mellon (U.S. News & World Report)
- #5 graduate degree program in the U.S. for information and technology management, ahead of Harvard, Rutgers and Michigan (U.S. News & World Report)

- #5 university in the country for producing the best-qualified graduates; more than 50 of the country's top corporations list ASU as a "top-tier" university for graduate recruitment (Wall Street Journal)

ASU is . . .

A top-10 research university in the U.S. for faculty Fulbright scholars, joining Cornell, Southern California and Michigan (Chronicle of Higher Education)
"A leader in undergraduate education" (The Princeton Review)
"An outstanding public university" (American City Business Journals)
"A prestigious global university" (Times Higher Education)
"A top world university" (Academic Ranking of World Universities) and the newly minted national champions of e-sports, and stands as the No. 1 public research university chosen by international students.

Master teachers for master learners

ASU faculty are at the forefront nationally in advancing research and discovery and producing graduates fully capable of meeting the needs of newly emerging career opportunities and tackling the unexpected. The university has more faculty Fulbright scholars than any other in the country, and is a top-five producer of student Fulbright scholars. Nobel laureates, Pulitzer Prize winners, MacArthur fellows and nearly 200 “highly prestigious” National Research Council faculty teach at ASU. The university is in elite company with Stanford, Harvard and the University of Chicago as one of the only universities in the country with enrolled Rhodes, Marshall and Churchill student scholars. More prestigious Flinn student scholars attend ASU than any other university in the state, and ASU is No. 1 in the country over the past decade in producing STEM-focused Goldwater student scholars. Barrett, The Honors College at ASU has been called “the gold standard of honors colleges” in the U.S. by The New York Times, and its multicampus residential community has more National Merit Scholars than MIT, Stanford, UC Berkeley, Duke and Brown, to name but a handful.

Wanted by employers: ASU students

ASU is highly regarded as a top university for graduate employability. The 2016 Global University Graduate Employability Survey ranks ASU in the top 10 nationally, ahead of MIT, Columbia and UCLA. The university ranks No. 5 on a list of the top universities favored by employers for producing the best-qualified graduates, according to The Wall Street Journal, and has also been cited by Business Insider as a top-20 school for landing a career in Silicon Valley, ahead of Cornell and UC Irvine. ASU is designated a “top-tier” recruiting university by 50 of the country’s leading corporations, including internet pioneers Yelp and GoDaddy; financial powerhouses Vanguard and Charles Schwab; insurance leaders Geico and State Farm; as well as Ford, American Airlines and Mayo Clinic. These giants of American industry are among the many who have increased the flow of talent from ASU through their leadership pipelines.

Learn to thrive

At ASU, innovation challenges the status quo. Innovation is a mindset woven into the fabric of the university, encouraging students to rethink, redesign and reinvent — to learn to thrive academically, professionally and personally.

This is what thriving is all about. And ASU is where it begins.

Campaign ASU 2020:

fueling discovery, championing student success, enriching society

Developing an Ebola treatment. Caring for a city’s homeless population. Opening pathways to higher education through scholarships.

Such accomplishments take intelligence, compassion — and generosity. To make possible more such life-changing actions, and to accelerate the university mission and raise support for its educational priorities, Arizona State University has embarked on a comprehensive, panuniversity philanthropic effort: Campaign ASU 2020.

Publicly launched in January 2017, the campaign is a strategic effort that will focus the entire university’s development energies on one goal — to permanently raise the long-term fundraising capacity of the university. Donations will fund scholarships, faculty research, labs, projects to ensure that students succeed to graduation, arts initiatives and ventures in the community.

“Campaign ASU 2020 is our moment in time to say, ‘Yes, we’ve been able to do that. Look at who we are,’” says ASU President Michael M. Crow. “It’s not just the faculty and it’s not just the students and it’s not just the staff. It’s the hundreds of thousands of people and the thousands of organizations that are behind us to move this university forward.”

“Campaign ASU 2020 will inspire people to support people.”

—Lindsay Zapata, ASU senior and New American University scholar

ASU: One university in many places

ASU recognizes that students have different ideas about what a campus should look and feel like and how they should learn — how they best should learn to thrive. The university has five metropolitan Phoenix campuses to fit the needs of its master learners.

Tempe campus — On the university's first campus, students enjoy the classic Pac-12 college experience. As a vibrant college town and the campus home to Sun Devil Athletics, Tempe is the heart of Sun Devil nation. Students with varied academic interests attend courses in state-of-the-art solar-powered buildings that are home to sustainability, engineering, business, health solutions, education, innovation and interdisciplinary arts and sciences colleges. More than 50,000 students study at this historic campus — ASU was founded in 1885 and opened for classes one year later — where big-time college athletics facilities, high-tech research space and performing arts venues create a dynamic and engaging learning environment.

Downtown Phoenix campus — Established in 2006, ASU's Downtown Phoenix campus is home to more than 11,000 students who thrive in a creative city culture. The metro campus is in the heart of the nation's 12th-largest media market. Journalism students learn their beat by reporting for the university-operated Arizona PBS. Public service and legal study students are front and center to the state capitol, major nonprofits and government agencies, and top law firms. Health majors land internships at nearby hospitals or biomedical research centers.

Polytechnic campus — Creativity and ambition flourish at ASU's East Valley-based Polytechnic campus. Home to nearly 5,000 students, the campus offers engineering and technology curricula that feature hands-on experiences: building robotics designed to address and solve society's most pressing challenges; designing innovative, security-enriched software programs; and working and learning in labs with 3-D printers, laser cutters and photo and video studios. "Poly" colleges include health solutions, interdisciplinary arts and sciences, engineering, education, sustainability and business. The campus features "Startup Village," student housing set aside for friends-turned-founders of student-led startups to live and work together.

Thunderbird School of Global Management — For 70 years one of the top management schools in the world, Thunderbird became a unit of the ASU Knowledge Enterprise in 2015. Located in Glendale, just minutes from ASU's West campus, the school equips graduate and undergraduate students with the skills to thrive and lead in the volatile global marketplace. Courses go far beyond the typical management curricula and are taught by globally recognized faculty delivering real-time, real-world training in the intricacies of doing business in today's interconnected international economy. Thunderbird has been recognized as the No. 1 school for the internationalism of its alumni (The Economist), No. 4 for best business schools in the U.S. with an international specialty (U.S. News & World Report), and is the first school to focus exclusively on international business.

West campus — A place to learn for intellectual trailblazers on a path to next-generation leadership, the West campus features a small, tight-knit community of nearly 5,000 students who enjoy one-on-one support and personalized opportunities throughout their college careers. Education, health, global management, business and interdisciplinary arts and sciences majors study in and around the shadows of lush courtyards and classic architecture, a state-of-the-art student center and new fitness complex. A City of Phoenix "Point of Pride," the West campus is home to the Gary K. Herberger Young Scholars Academy, a groundbreaking learning environment designed for highly gifted students in grades 7–12.

In addition to ASU's five metro Phoenix campuses, the ASU Colleges at Lake Havasu City offers undergraduates the opportunity to gain professional skills and experience through internships with community partners and local businesses. The co-op model matches students' academic interests with work-based learning options focused on gaining practical experience. Colleges of health solutions, integrative and interdisciplinary arts and sciences, public service and community solutions, and business provide higher education degree work within a stone's throw from the historic London Bridge that once spanned the Thames River.

The best and brightest: Barrett, The Honors College

Barrett, The Honors College at ASU has emerged as one of the preeminent honors colleges in the United States. The New York Times calls Barrett the “gold standard” among the nation’s honors colleges, with more National Merit Scholars than MIT, Duke, Brown, Stanford or the University of California-Berkeley. National Hispanic, National Achievement, Fulbright, Truman, Goldwater, Rhodes, Marshall and Churchill scholars also rank among its outstanding undergraduates and graduates.

A living and learning community of the best and brightest scholars, caring advisors and enthusiastic professors, Barrett is unique among U.S. honors colleges, serving as a blueprint for higher education peers. It represents a powerful and unique combination of the special care and attention an honors student should expect in academics and advising. It is an excellent residential liberal arts college with the vast program choice and research mentoring resources of a vibrant Research I university.

Barrett students benefit from a $12 million endowment used exclusively to support honors students’ revolutionary ideas, original research and groundbreaking business ventures. Their success is bolstered by dedicated Honors Faculty Fellows, all master teachers and scholars, who give 100 percent of their time to helping honors students excel in their academic careers. In addition to these full-time honors college personnel, more than 1,200 university faculty teach and mentor Barrett students across four ASU metropolitan Phoenix campuses.

The Barrett success model is an impactful commitment to the well-being of society. It is also straightforward: From the president of the university to the caretakers of its honors campuses, there is unwavering support of purpose at Barrett — to promote and enable the very best education possible for intellectually engaged students from Arizona, from across America and from around the world.

Notable ASU alumni

ASU has provided a launchpad for more than a half-million passionate, innovative, master-learner alumni who have played a positive, active role in their local, national and global communities to resolve some of the world’s most challenging issues. Sun Devil alumni are also active in cultural, sports and arts endeavors, making an indelible impact wherever they go. Here are but a few graduates of ASU who have learned to thrive on a public stage.

University President Michael M. Crow

Michael M. Crow is an academic leader and educator, designer of knowledge enterprises, and science and technology policy scholar.

Crow became the 16th president of Arizona State University in July 2002. He is guiding its transformation into one of the nation's leading public metropolitan research universities, an institution that combines the highest levels of academic excellence, inclusiveness to a broad demographic and maximum societal impact — a model he terms the “New American University.”

Under his direction, the university pursues teaching, research and creative excellence focused on the major challenges of our time, as well as those central to the quality of life, sustainable development and economic competitiveness of Arizona and the nation. He has committed the university to sustainability, social embeddedness and global engagement, and championed initiatives leading to record levels of diversity in the student body.

Under his leadership, ASU has established more than a dozen new transdisciplinary schools, including the School of Human Evolution and Social Change and the School of Earth and Space Exploration. He has advanced major transdisciplinary research initiatives such as the Biodesign Institute; Julie Ann Wrigley Global Institute of Sustainability, incorporating the country's first School of Sustainability; Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College; and important initiatives in the humanities and social sciences. During his tenure, the university has more than quadrupled research expenditures, undergone unprecedented infrastructure expansions, and has been named The nation's most innovative school by U.S. News & World Report in 2016 and 2017.

Crow was previously professor of science and technology (School of International and Public Affairs) and executive vice provost of Columbia University. As chief strategist of Columbia's research enterprise, he led technology and innovation transfer operations, establishing Columbia Innovation Enterprises (renamed Science and Technology Ventures), as well as advancing interdisciplinary program development. He played the lead role in the creation of and served as the founding director for the Earth Institute at Columbia University. In 1998, Crow founded the Consortium for Science, Policy and Outcomes (CSPO), dedicated to linking science and technology to optimal social, economic and environmental outcomes. In 2003, CSPO was re-established at ASU and is now based in both Phoenix and Washington.

Crow is an elected fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and National Academy of Public Administration, and has served as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and U.S. Department of Commerce National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. He is the co-author of “Designing the New American University,” published in February 2015 by Johns Hopkins University Press. He has authored and co-authored books and articles analyzing knowledge enterprises, science and technology policy, and the design of higher education institutions and systems.

Crow received his PhD in public administration (science and technology policy) from the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University. Born in 1955 in San Diego, Crow is the son of a U.S. Navy sailor. He is married to Dr. Sybil Francis and is the father of three children.
